HARRISON BROTHERS HARDWARE

Harrison Brothers is the oldest continuously operating hardware store in Alabama. Founded in 1879 by brothers James and Daniel Harrison as a tobacco store on Jefferson Street, the business was moved to its present location in 1897. Harrison Brothers is more than a glimpse of old Huntsville. It is a shopper's delight. Cotton throws, colorful tins, marbles by the scoop, cast iron cookware and oak rocking chairs share space with garden gadgets, bird feeders and whirly-gigs. Goods nestled up high are reached from tall rolling ladders, the rope elevator is hand operated, and a pot-bellied stove helps warm the store in the winter. Nearby, a tall desk displays an untidy mound of old invoices, catalogs and calendars, just as the last Harrison brother left it. When you are searching for a souvenir to take home or just browsing, Harrison Brothers is the place to visit.

The Tea Room serves light lunches and the Gift Shop is always filled with interesting, decorative and useful garden items.
